CAUGHT AFTER MANY YEARS

W. M. Robbins, Charged with Passing Bogus Checks on Gettysburg Men, is Arrested in Trenton by Officer Wilson.

After having been at large for almost two years W. M. Robbins was arrested last week in Trenton, New Jersey, by Officer Wilson of this place, on a charge of having passed bogus checks on John Raymond and John H. Fagan. Robbins' work here, on which he secured $10 from Mr. Raymond and $9 from Mr. Fagan, was done on August 12, 1910. Today, just two years later, Mr. Wilson left for Trenton to bring back his prisoner following the granting of the usual requisition papers.

Robbins had known Mr. Raymond in York before the latter came to Gettysburg and made use of his acquaintance at that time to secure $10 on a check for $22.50 asking Mr. Raymond to hold the balance until it would be called for. The check was signed by one Taylor, and was on a Hagerstown bank. Another check signed by one Fox, also on a Hagerstown bank, was cashed by John H. Fagan who gave $9 to the man who immediately disappeared. Both checks were found to be worthless.

The capture after so long a time is a matter of much pleasure to Mr. Wilson and to all concerned. Robbins was greatly surprised when the officer called upon him in Trenton where he had been employed in a furniture factory. Robbins was at one time an employee at the Engle, now the Reaser, furniture factory here.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING

The sixty third annual session of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association will be held in Harrisburg, December 26, 27, and 28. The outline of the preliminary program has been sent out by the president, J. George Becht, to heads of departments, for suggestion and revision. A new departure will be made in the program arrangement for this year. Each of the departments will be in charge of one of the general sessions of the association. This will insure a large measure of interest in the Department work. Among the topics to receive special consideration are, first, The Rural School and Country Life Problem; second, The Course of Study and its Adjustments; third, Physical and Vocational Education and their Relation to Modern Life.

FAMILY REUNION

A reunion was held at the home of Harry L. Wertz, near Fairfield, on Thursday, of the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gelbach. Those present were, H. L. Hartman and Mrs. James Caldwell, of Gettysburg; Mrs. Elizabeth Bushey, of Ohio; Miss Alice Spangler, of Hanover; and Miss Ruth Gelbach, of Baltimore. The day was most pleasantly spent by all.

AUTO ON FIRE

A large Winton touring car caught fire in Littlestown Saturday evening and would likely have been badly damaged but for the prompt arrival of the chemical engine belonging to that town. The party were on a trip to Gettysburg and had stopped in front of Frank Stavley's store where they filled their gasoline tank. The driver lighted a cigar a moment later and when he dropped the match the gasoline caught. They were able to go on after a few minor repairs.

The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Laughlin, Miss Catharine Laughlin and John Laughlin, all of Piedmont, West Virginia.

PAINFULLY HURT AT SCOUT CAMP

John Slaybaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Slaybaugh, of Springs avenue, received a very painful wound at Boiling Springs park Saturday night which may cause him the sight of his right eye, though the physicians hope to save it with careful treatment.

With several other members of the Gettysburg Boy Scout camp the young man had gone to the park to spend the evening and while there was shooting at mark with Alex. Buehler, another Gettysburg boy. Young Slaybaugh was just about to shoot when the ball from Buehler's gun hit the target and rebounded with considerable force striking the unfortunate lad at the side of the right eye and plunging a little furrow under the lower lid.

The boys were very much alarmed and secured the services of a physician from Boiling Springs as quickly as possible. He succeeded in removing the ball and rendered all the necessary preliminary treatment. The injured boy suffered much pain on Saturday night, and Sunday evening his father brought him home in an automobile.

It is thought that the ball struck the extreme lower portion of the eye and that there is where the harm was done. A little bit higher and there would have been no doubt whatever about the sight of the eye being destroyed. The eye was very much blood-shot, immediately following the accident and all the Scouts were very much alarmed.

The unfortunate affair was purely an accident and no blame attaches to anyone connected with it.

NEWS FROM BOY SCOUTS

The Times this morning received from the Boy Scout camp the following which was generally signed by the Gettysburg boys: "Having learned that there have been varied rumors as to the food we are getting we, members of Camp '68, hereby inform our fathers and mothers and those interested that we are getting enough to eat and are all well with the exception of a few who have colds. We have had a fine time and are showing our appreciation by listening to our Scout Master."

Ralph Dietrich is the champion biker of the camp. He walked to the camp, a distance of 29 miles, and with Potty Menchey, Maurice Miller and Hockey Buehler planned a trip to Harrisburg. On Wednesday he visited Carlisle, Shippensburg, Chambersburg, Waynesboro, and Greencastle and then returned to camp. He did not walk the entire distance but covered much of it on foot.

JOHN FAGAN BUILDING

The Carlisle Sentinel says: "John H. Fagan, dealer in builders' supplies will have quite an extensive and modern plant when it is completed. A portion of the building is two story and another part one story. One shed is 58 feet long, another 25 feet long and another 20 feet wide and 125 feet long. There is a large unloading platform along the siding and a large amount of yard space, which will be utilized in dealing in coal. An office building of modern design and a weigh scales are in course of construction."

Until their home is finished they will occupy half of the Mrs. Martha Ocker property on East King street, to which place they moved their furniture last week.

COUNTY PICNIC AT MT. HOLLY

Crowd Smallest in Many Years due to Unfavorable Weather but those who Went Spent Enjoyable Day.

With scarcely three hundred Adams County people in attendance this year's county picnic was held Saturday at pretty Mount Holly Park, those who took the day off enjoying things to the utmost and finding their pleasure repaying them for "braving the elements" earlier in the day.

The special train leaving Gettysburg at seven o'clock took less than ninety people, the stations that usually contributed several hundred in other years turning out ten and twenty. The regular eleven o'clock train carried one hundred while the afternoon train took over about the same number.

Mount Holly Park is pretty as ever and all the amusements which the place affords were eagerly sought by the Adams Countians. The boating on the big dam was enjoyed by many, the roller coaster did a big business, the dancing floor was popular and all the other places for having a good time received good patronage. A shower during the morning caused a hurried rush for cover but, though the weather threatened, there was not sufficient rainfall to cause discomfort.

In the afternoon York Springs and the Salad Bird baseball teams played an interesting game on the park diamond, the county boys capturing the game by a score of 6 to 3. The Biglerville and Bendersville bands were generous with their music during the day and, coupled with McDonald's orchestra which played for the dancing, the picnickers had all the music they could desire.

The excursion this year was not run by Adams County people as has usually been the custom in the past but was under the direction of the traction company operating between Carlisle and Mount Holly.

POSTPONED GAMES WILL BE PLAYED

Schedule of Postponed Games is Announced and Base Ball League will Continue Two More Weeks. The Prospects.

The regular schedule of the Sunday School Base Ball League is completed with this evening's game between the Reformed and College Lutheran teams and now the work of playing off the postponed games will be taken up. The following schedule for these contests has been announced:

13--Reformed vs. Methodist.
14--Presbyterian vs. Catholic.
15--Reformed vs. College.
16--St. James vs. Methodist.
19--Presbyterian vs. Reformed.
20--Catholic vs. Methodist.
21--St. James vs. Reformed.
22--Catholic vs. College.
23--St. James vs. Presbyterian.
26--Presbyterian vs. Catholic.
27--St. James vs. Methodist.

On these postponed games will depend the outcome of the present season. The Catholic team now has a comfortable lead and, with only four more games to play, looks like a winner but they have one game with the Methodists who have been showing good form, two with the Presbyterians who have been strengthened by the return of Ira Plank and one with the College team which administered defeat two years ago. The other teams are hoping that they can win enough games out of the postponed schedule to be in the running at the end and some interesting base ball is promised.

The present standing of the clubs is as follows:

	W.	L.	P. C.
Catholic	5	1	.833
St. James	4	2	.667
Reformed	3	2	.600
Methodist	3	3	.500
College	2	5	.285
Presbyterian	1	5	.167

DRIVING ACCIDENT

A peculiar accident occurred on Little Round Top Sunday when a two horse team started to run towards the hill from the avenue near the Zouave monument on the northern slope. The team belonged to George Shearer and had been driven by William McCleary. All the party had gotten out to go up to the Warren statue when one of the horses, in kicking at a fly, lifted his leg over the pole. Both started for the steep slope and were only stopped by the guard rail which demolished two wheels but did no other damage.

Ringing bells and tooting horns west of town Saturday night, with reflection from the town's lights caused people to believe that there was a fire some distance west of Seminary Ridge. The whole disturbance was caused by a crowd of serenaders.

Visiting Boy Scouts are numerous these days. Last week two were here from Philadelphia, having hiked a great of the way. Others are noticed here almost daily though only traveling in small parties.

The Catholic picnic last Wednesday yielded a net return of $451.71.

Campers have had uncomfortable times during the last week with almost every day contributing its share of rain. Creeks are high and too muddy for good fishing. The St. Swithin's superstition seems to be holding good this year.

With base ball and hitching posts as subjects for arguments the people of town have had their hands full in the debating line during the past week.

Automobile traffic to Gettysburg on Sunday was up to the average but little better than the usual run.

The work at building concrete piers under the Western Maryland bridge at Rock Creek is attracting a number of persons. It is said that the tracks there are to be raised considerably.

Surrounding counties report a large number of cases of hog cholera.

Carlisle isn't quite sure whether it will ask for the state Patriotic Order Sons of America convention in 1913 or 1914. The Carlisle camp of the order will request every other camp in Cumberland county to lend assistance in case they decide to extend such an invitation. Gettysburg is after the convention also and, should Carlisle enter as a contestant, some interesting times may be looked for.

HUSBAND DEAD: BRIDE IS HELD

Doctor Says He Found Poison In Man's Stomach.

MARRIED ONLY FOUR DAYS

Detectives Who Investigated the Case Say William Prost Had Made His $6000 Life Insurance Payable to His Bride.

Philadelphia, Aug. 12.—Accused of causing her husband's death by poison, Mrs. Freda Prost, forty years old, of 131 Germantown avenue, married only four days, was arrested and locked up at City Hall.

Edmund Guenhal, thirty-two years old, of 4816 North Mascher street, a bartender employed by Mrs. Prost, who conducts a saloon, also was arrested as a material witness.

Mrs. Prost was a widow when she married William Prost, forty-four years old, last Monday, her first husband having died eighteen months ago. Prost was a baker. A few days before their marriage he made a will, leaving his estate, valued at $6000, to the woman now under arrest.

Prost died last Thursday. Mrs. Prost reported to the coroner's office, according to the charge, that his death was due to injuries received in a trolley accident supposed to have taken place at Twenty-eighth and Jefferson streets.

Dr. William S. Wadsworth, coroner's physician, was unable to find trace of he supposed injuries, and insisted upon performing an autopsy. Mrs. Prost protested, it is declared, but the autopsy was performed.

In the meantime, Coroner's Detective Frank Paul investigated the case. He says he could find no record of a trolley accident at Twenty-eighth and Jefferson streets on the date mentioned. Neither could he find any record of any one named Prost being injured at any place.

At the autopsy Doctor Wadsworth reported he found poison in the man's stomach. To allay suspicion, so that an investigation could be conducted to better advantage, the coroner's office allowed the funeral to take place and Prost's body was interred in Greenmount cemetery.

The investigation was conducted quietly by Detective Paul, assisted by Detectives Emanuel and Belcher of the city hall staff. They say they found that on July 28 Prost made a will, leaving his entire estate and his life insurance to his bride. On Monday, Aug. 5, the marriage took place. Four days later Mrs. Prost reported her husband's death.

Detectives Emanuel and Belcher went to Mrs. Prost's home Sunday night and placed her under arrest on a warrant charging her with homicide. Both she and Guenhal, according to the detectives have made statements, but the police refuse to divulge them.

SICK MAN TURNING BLACK

Change Seen Day By Day Goes With Loss of Weight.

St. Louis, Aug. 12.—Afflicted by a mysterious malady which has baffled more than fifty St. Louis physicians called in consultation, S. A. Hendricks, a sixty-five-year-old farmer, of Van Buren, Mo., is turning black at the Mayfield sanitarium.

Five months ago his skin was fair and ruddy. Now his complexion is several shades darker than that of a mulatto, and a rapid change to black is carrying him through successively darker shades. This change is so swift that it can be noted from day to day by the physicians, who are powerless to check it, or even to find a satisfactory explanation for the strange transformation.

When Hendricks was taken to the sanitarium, July 25, he weighed 190 pounds. His present weight is 95 pounds.

HUMAN CHAIN SAVES LIVES

Bathers Help Life-Guards Rescue Imperiled Man and Woman.

Ocean City, N. J., Aug. 12.—Frank Hall, of Philadelphia, while bathing at Tenth street with Miss Inez Livingstone, was seized with cramps.

They were outside the breakers and the heavy sea soon exhausted them. Hearing their cries, Milton Hagy went to their assistance and held them safely until life-guards Orr and Pollock reached them. There was a heavy undertow, and a number of bathers joined hands, formed a human chain and drew the man and girl ashore. Miss Livingstone fainted when she was brought to the beach, but soon was revived and taken home.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Naval officers have found from records that the rock upon which the battleship Nebraska struck was charted as far back as 1829. Of late years, however, the mark on the chart showing the rock was believed to be a mistake and consequently was left off.

Railroad Man Killed By Train.

New York, Aug. 12.—News was received here that detectives are on the way to this city from Hot Springs, Ark., with Sam Schepps, paymaster to the men who killed Herman Rosenthal 26 days ago, and wanted as an accessory to the crime.

With the detectives from the office of District Attorney Whitman is an escort of Burns men, who will prevent any attempt at foul play on the part of the confederates.

Schepps was arrested under the name of Franklin. He is out of funds and in poor health. He is said to be ready to confess to Mr. Whitman all he knows of the shooting and the reasons that led up to it. The fact that he is on the way east shows that he waived extradition.

Whether he will receive immunity is not known, but he hopes to be treated with the same leniency as Jack Rose, who saved his freedom by making a full confession.

It is hoped that Schepps knows the whereabouts of the missing Harry Horowitz, known as "Gyp the Hood," and his pal, "Lefty Louie," wanted for the actual murder.

Schepps is the man to whom "Bridge" Webber, now in jail with Jack Rose and Harry Vallon, says he gave $1000 to pass to the actual murderers as getaway money after the murder; that he saw the money handed over near Forty-second street and Seventh avenue. The district attorney wants Schepp to give his version of the murder. Rose says that he and Schepps stayed in Webber's gambling house waiting for the news of Rosenthal's actual murder, and that they kept the waiters busy to establish alibi. They were so excited they could not eat. Schepp's side of this story is eagerly awaited.

HUNDREDS DIE IN EARTHQUAKE

Shocks Cause Great Damage In Turkey Along Marmora Sea.

FIRE DESTROYS MANY TOWNS

Refugees Are Camping Out in the Fields, Without Shelter and Food. Government Is Sending Steamers to Their Relief.

Constantinople, Aug. 12.—Several hundred persons have been killed, thousands are homeless and outbreaks of fire have occurred in many towns and villages as a result of the harrowing earthquake shocks along the Sea of Marmora.

The details, coming in slowly, owing to the interruption of the wires, indicate that seismic disturbance has been caused by the upheaval. Some towns were practically wiped out.

The entire district between Constantinople and Adrianople felt the shock severely. Fugitives from Myrphito report 300 killed and 600 injured. The town was still burning when they left. Ganos-Hora has been wiped out, 80 persons being killed and 30 wounded. The wrecked buildings took fire and most of them burned to the ground. Shar-Koi was completely destroyed and two nearby villages were engulfed. Adrianople suffered little damage, but Tchorlu was partly destroyed by the earthquake and fire.

The center of the disturbance appears to have been in the region of the Dardanelles. Eye-witnesses from that section give harrowing accounts of the havoc wrought. The majority of the houses in Gallipoli, 132 miles west of Constantinople in ruins and the people are camping in the fields. Tehanak-Kaleesi, at the narrowest part of the Dardanelles, is in an equally bad plight, but the loss of life in these two towns is small, although the injured are many.

Warships anchored in the Dardanelles felt the shock severely. It was first attributed to Italian torpedo boats.

The captain of the American steamer Virginia reports that the light-house at Ganez Hora, in the Sea of Marmora, has disappeared, and that the villages in the surrounding country are in flames. He was unable to anchor and render assistance owing to the violent movement of the sea.

A considerable number of the injured have arrived in Constantinople from the Marmora region for treatment in the hospitals.

The inhabitants of several villages are homeless and without food. A special steamer has been chartered and a torpedo-boat has been ordered to go to their relief.

Gallipoli is situated at the exit from the Dardanelles into the Sea of Marmora. It was formerly a town of importance, but its population has dwindled from 100,000 to less than 20,000.

The town of Tehanak-Kaleesi, which has about 10,000 inhabitants, is located on the Asia Minor side of the Dardanelles.

GETS $250,000 REWARD

Fellow Now In Jail, Who Was Kind to Aunt, Well Paid.

Washington, Pa., Aug. 12.—When Anton Kardos, an insurance agent near here, sent all his savings of years to an aunt in Austria-Hungary, who had reared him since the death of his parents in infancy, to tide her over financial difficulties, he acted without hope of reward.

He received his recompense four years later, when a letter from the village of Zeremeeze, Austria, informed him that the aunt, Mrs. Susanna Kardos, had recently died and left him her entire fortune, estimated to be worth $250,000.

Kardos' good fortune comes at a period of low ebb in his career, as he is now serving a sentence of three months in jail on a charge of embezzling insurance society funds. The property to which he is sole heir consists mostly of Austrian real estate, although his aunt's personal estate was a large one.

Kardos is native of Austria, and claims to be in his present predicament because of the activity of a disgruntled member of the insurance society, who was suspended for non-payment of dues. Kardos came to this country eight years ago and prospered.

BEACH POOR DRESSING ROOM

Police Arrest Couple Taking Chances to Win a Wager.

Atlantic City, Aug. 12.—Attracted by the sensational spectacle of a youth and a handsome young woman exchanging their bathtubs suits on the strand at Tennessee avenue, hundreds of bathers deserted the surf and gathered about them, forming a cordon through which Beach Patrolman Heulings Craig was able to force his way only with the greatest difficulty. He reached the gay pair of visitors before a full exchange had been effected and placed them under arrest.

At police headquarters they gave said was the result of a wager. But their names as Samuel Spahn and Anno Costello, of Washington. The attempted exchange of clothing, they said, was the result of a wager. Bail was furnished by their friends.

Draws Out Poison

Marvelous Antiseptic that Draws Glass Wood and Needles from the Flesh

There never was known such a powerful drawing ointment as San Cura. Wherever it has been used it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitecock, of Centerville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

Nothing so healing or antiseptic can be purchased today. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by People's and Huber's Drug Stores, to quickly cure any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles, ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores, chilblains, and chapped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies such as bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, because it kills the pain instantly. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 25c and 50c a jar at People's and Huber's Drug Store.

BEST SKIN SOAP

Is San Cura Soap, because of its great antiseptic and healing virtues. Use it regularly, and it will make the skin soft and velvety; will remove pimples and blackheads. PROHIBITIONISTS HOLD THEIR NOTIFICATION

Committee Calls on Eugene W. Chafin at Waukesha, Wis.

Presidential Candidate Chafin Accepts in Speech Defining Issues.
Waukesha, Wis., Aug. 10.—The outdoor gala day arranged for the formal notification of the nomination of Eugene W. Chafin, of Tucson, Ariz., as Prohibition candidate for president of the United States, was marred by heavy rain, and it was found necessary to hold the notification meeting in the Methodist church.

The notification address was delivered by Rev. Charles H. Mead, of New York, permanent chairman of the national convention which nominated Mr. Chafin in Atlantic City, N. J. Previous to the notification address, brief speeches were made by T. W. Parkinson, former law partner of the candidate; T. W. Haight, one of his school teachers, and Judge C. E. Armin, on behalf of the Waukesha Bar association.

Mr. Chafin, in his speech of acceptance, strongly indorsed one term of six years' plank of the platform, saying: "The time has come in our history when we have too much present—too much politics—too frequent presidential elections. We are an industrial business nation of people. Our progress should not be stopped one year in four to elect a president."

Of the liquor traffic he said: "The liquor traffic is wrong. It produces crime, poverty and political corruption and spreads disease and death. All laws taxing or licensing such a traffic should be repealed. Ten million persons engaged in or victims of the liquor traffic consume and do not produce any of the necessities of life. Herein lies the cause of the high cost of living. Destroy the liquor traffic—let those 10,000,000 consumers become producers and the problem is solved and there is no other solution. Charging it to the tariff and like legislation is mere buncombe. The liquor problem is the greatest economic problem the world has ever faced. The solution of the labor and capital question is bound up in it."

On the tariff issue, he quoted the full platform plank, which says: "As the tariff is a commercial question it should be fixed on the scientific basis of accurate knowledge, secured by means of a permanent, omnipartisan tariff commission, with ample powers."

Woman suffrage, he declared, had been advocated by Prohibitionists "since our first presidential nominating convention in 1872. We have been a most potent factor in that reform. More than 1,000,000 women in six States will vote for president this year. The old parties may declare for it as soon as it is granted in a majority of the States. We are glad to have them follow—we are sorry they are so slow."

REPUBLICANS SPLIT IN OHIO

State Chairman Walter F. Brown Led the Bolters.

WILL NAME TICKET TOMORROW

General R. B. Brown Was Named By the Regulars as the Republican Nominee For Governor In Place of Judge E. B. Dillon.

Columbus, O., Aug. 12.—Taft and Roosevelt men reached the parting of the ways in Ohio politics when, following the nomination of General R. B. Brown, of Zanesville, for governor at a meeting of the Republican state central committee, eight members of that body, led by State Chairman Walter F. Brown and Secretary L. M. Foster, resigned.

Walter F. Brown also gave notice of his resignation as a member of the Republican national committee for Ohio.

The nomination of General R. B. Brown was made by the committee at a meeting called to fill the vacancy at the head of the ticket caused by the resignation of Judge E. B. Dillon, who refused to make the race.

The Roosevelt members of the State central committee centered their strength on United States District Attorney Grant Denman, of Cleveland. The vote in committee resulted, Brown, 11; Denman, 8. Two of the Roosevelt members of the committee, A. L. Garford, of Eyrja, and Alexander Kiskadden, of Tiffin, were absent from the meeting.

Previous to the meeting of the state central committee, the Taft leaders called the candidates for minor state offices into conference, and asked them to approve the candidacy of E. M. Pullington. A majority of the candidates refused to do so. The Taft members of the committee and some of the Taft leaders then decided to support General Brown, who was the nominee for lieutenant governor with Judge Dillon, who resigned.

Following the split, Walter Brown and other supporters of Colonel Roosevelt said that they expected that a complete Progressive state ticket would be placed in the field at once.

Immediately following the withdrawal of the Roosevelt supporters from the room, the remaining members of the committee went into a secret consultation and determined to call a meeting of the state central committee for Tuesday, when the vacancies on the state central committee will be filled and a nominee for lieutenant governor selected to succeed General Brown.

"Will Doctor Denman stand for the platform, and will he support Mr. Taft, the head of the Republican ticket?" demanded Maurice Maschke, of Cleveland.

"I don't know. I can't speak for Mr. Denman," answered Knight. "Mr. Denman is a regular Republican," said Walter Brown, "and I don't know whether he would support either Mr. Taft or Mr. Roosevelt. It is my idea that should you nominate Mr. Denman, his name should appear upon both the Republican and Progressive state tickets."

Erman Granger voiced the attitude of the supporters of President Taft when he said, in nominating General Brown: "Mr. Roosevelt is no longer a member of the Republican party. The man we nominate must be a man who will support the principles of the Republican party and the head of the ticket, Mr. Taft."

The decision of the Roosevelt leaders to give their support to former Attorney General Denman took the Taft leaders by surprise, inasmuch as Denman has been classed as a Taft man, and the Taft people at once went to work to discover, as they said, "if there was a mouse in the meal." A little investigation determined the Taft men to declare open war against the nomination of Denman, the Roosevelt choice, and from that point on the split was inevitable.

OFF TO DIG UP $30,000,000

Legend of Cocos Island Lures Canadian on Treasure Quest.

New York, Aug. 12.—The legend of $30,000,000 gold hidden in on the obscure island of Cocos, in the Pacific ocean, off the west coast of Costa Rica, is the lure which brought Fredrick Smodden from Calgary, Canada to this city, whence he sailed for Central America.

A dozen or more expeditions have been made in search of the same treasure, but Smodden is convinced that he has the real secret of it, whereabouts, handed down by Captain Trevan, a sea dog of many generations back, whose plan to search for the gold was frustrated by a fatal illness.

The legend credits rich Central Americans with having buried the gold on or near the island when the confiscation of their goods by the Spanish was imminent. Why the owners of such vast wealth never recovered their property is not explained.

SAWS EASY TO GET IN JAIL

Chicago, Aug. 12.—As a policeman was taking J. H. Clinton, a former convict, from the county jail to return him to Columbus, O., where he wanted on a charge of burglary, Clinton handed six saws to Jailer Will T. Davis.

"Here's a present for you," Clinton said. "You see we can get saws in there, no matter what you do."

A week ago Clinton and three other prisoners attempted jail delivery, and were in possession of the interior of the jail for two hours. It never has been learned where they obtained the saws and revolvers used at that time.

Frank O'Neill, who is accused of killing a jail guard, also was taken to Columbus.

Negroes Guests of Helen Gould.

Tarrytown, Aug. 12.—Helen Gould had 600 negroes as her guests on her playgrounds here. Most of them came from New York churches. Miss Gould was unable to charter trolley cars to convey the party to her place because all of the cars were in use for the celebration of the opening of a new trolley line at White Plains and as a result, the party had to walk six miles from the railroad station to the playgrounds and back again.

Taft Appoints New Appraisers.

Washington, Aug. 12.—President Taft sent to the senate the nomination of Frederick A. Higgins to be appraiser of customs at New York and that of R. F. Clero to be appraiser of customs at New Orleans. Mr. Higgins will succeed Francis W. Bird, who resigned to join the Progressive party movement.

ROUGH SCALY SKIN

Little Patches That Peel off and Form Again.

Try this Remedy at Our Risk.

Most skin diseases are eruptions accompanied by itching. But there is another kind in which small patches of scales appear and fall off, followed by another crop.

This may spread all over the body and become almost incurable.

A soothing application of Saxo Salve, our new skin remedy, should be made. This is very healing and penetrates through the outer layer of skin to the very seat of the trouble, destroying the germs.

Treated in this way, as directed by the book in the box, the scaly patches disappear and are replaced by smooth, healthy skin. Saxo Salve is wonderfully healing and soothing in all forms of skin diseases, eczema, barber's itch, ringworm, etc., and we guarantee it to satisfy you, paying back your money if it does not. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

His Grounds.

By a queer trick of politics an ignorant and pompous old dandy was elected judge of a minor court in a certain western state. In the first case over which he presided he made a ruling so absurd that the lawyer whose case was affected by it said: "This is a very strange ruling, your honor. Upon what grounds do you make it?" "What grounds—does you say? Why, dese yer co'house grounds, of co'se!" replied the judge.—Judge.

New Talking-Machine Records. Talking machine records made by photography will be the next development in the reproduction of sound. Invented by a Russian named Lifschitz, a new machine has been made which, it is claimed, reproduces music and sounds of any kind with perfect clearness, without any rasping or scraping defects. The records are made entirely by photography.

CHAPTER XIV.

In Which Trumet Talks of Captain Nat.

Summer was over, autumn came, passed, and it was winter—John Ellery's first winter in Trumet. Fish weirs were taken up, the bay filled with ice, the packet ceased to run, and the village settled down to hibernate until spring. The stage came through on its regular trips, except when snow or slush rendered the roads impassable, but passengers were very few. Twice there were wrecks, one of a fishing schooner, the crew of which were fortunate enough to escape by taking to the dories, and another, a British bark, which struck on the farthest bar and was beaten to pieces by the great waves, while the townspeople stood helplessly watching from the shore, for launching a boat in that surf was impossible. Mr. Pepper made no more calls at the parsonage, and when the minister met him, at church or elsewhere, seemed anxious to avoid an interview.

"Well, Abishai," asked Ellery, on one of these occasions, "how are you getting on at home? Has your sister locked you up again?"

"No, sir, she ain't," replied Kyan. "Lavinia, she's sort of different lately. She ain't nigh so—so down on a feller as she used to be. I can get out once in a while by myself nowadays, when she wants to write a letter or somethin'. Writes one about every once in a week. I don't know who they're to, nuther. She's talkin' of goin' up to Sandwich pretty soon."

"She is? Alone?"

"So she says."

"To leave you here? Why! well, I'm surprised."

"Godfrey's mighty! so he is. But she says she b'lieves she needs a change and there's church conference up there, you know, and she figgers that she ain't been to conference she don't know when. I s'pose you'll go, won't you, Mr. Ellery?"

"Probably."

Lavinia got herself elected a delegate and went, in company with Captain Elkman, Mrs. Mayo, and others, to the conference. She was a faithful attendant at the meetings and seemed to be having a very good time. She introduced the minister to one Caleb Pratt, a resident of Sandwick, whom she said she had known ever since she was a girl.

"Mr. Pratt's a cousin of Thankful Payne over to home," volunteered Lavinia. "You know Thankful, Mr. Ellery."

Lavinia confided to her pastor that Mr. Pratt made the best shoes in Ostable county. He could fit any kind of feet, she declared, and the minister ought to try him sometime. She added that he had money in the bank.

Spring once more; then summer. And now people were again speaking of Captain Nat Hammond. His ship was overdue, long overdue. Even in those days, when there were no cables and the telegraph was still something of a novelty, word of his arrival should have reached Trumet months before this. But it had not come, and did not. Before the summer was over, the wise heads of the retired skippers were shaking dubiously. Something had happened to the Sea Mist, something serious.

As the weeks and months went by without news of the missing vessel, this belief became almost a certainty. At the Come-Outer chapel, where Ezekiel Bassett now presided, prayers were offered for the son of their former leader.

One afternoon Keziah came into Ellery's study, where he was laboring with his next Sunday sermon, and sat down in the rocking-chair. She had been out and still wore her bonnet and shawl.

"John," she said, "I ask your pardon for disturbin' you. I wanted to ask if you knew Mrs. Prince was sick?"

"No, is she? I'm awfully sorry. Nothing serious, I hope?"

"No, I guess not. Only she's got a cold and is kind of under the weather. I thought p'raps you'd like to run up and see her. She thinks the world and all of you, 'cause you was so good when she was distressed about her son. Poor old thing! she's had a hard time of it. I just heard that she was allin' from Diddama Rogers. Diddama said she was all but dyin', so I knew she prob'ly had a little cold, o' somethin'. If she was really very bad, Dd would have had her buried by this time, so's to be sure her news was ahead of anybody else's. I ain't been up there, but I met her t'other mornin'."

"Diddama?"

"No; Mrs. Prince. She'd come down to see Grace."

"Oh."

"Yes. The old lady's been awful kind and sympathizin' since—since this new trouble. It reminds her of the loss of her own boy, I presume likely, and so she feels for Grace. John, what do they say around town about—about him?"

HARRY C. FOX

Harry C. Fox, a well known resident of Waynesboro, died at ten o'clock, Friday night, in the Chambersburg hospital from peritonitis, aged 67 years.

His sister-in-law, Miss S. P. Horner, of Gettysburg, who had been notified by Waynesboro friends of his condition, was at his bedside at the time of his death.

Mr. Fox was born in Baltimore in 1845. He remained there during his youth and learned the trade of sawyer. July 13, 1864, he enlisted in Company D, 12th Maryland volunteers. He saw active service in the war and was honorably discharged with Company F, 11th Maryland volunteers, June 15, 1865. About ten years later Mr. Fox went to Waynesboro. He became a member of Capt. John E. Walker post, No. 257, G. A. R., in August 1887.

For many years Mr. Fox was employed in the Waynesboro shops. At the time of his death he worked in the assembling rooms of the Frick shops.

Mr. Fox was a member of the Presbyterian church since his youth. He was a devout Christian, with deep convictions, a generous spirit and a kind heart.

In the church he was one of the most regular attendants at the various services. His thoughtfulness and consideration for others won for him many firm and lasting friendships.

Surviving are three sons: Albert Fox, Philadelphia; McCarrell Fox, North Carolina, and William Fox, of Baltimore.

The funeral was held at eleven o'clock this morning from the Presbyterian church. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery.
